do you know anyone in the marshal's office?

my story is about my bike it keeps breaking, not bc of road or wear, but malfeasance -- will you ask if i get a helmet, will it please the gods

i am not bookselling. make sure they know and on books --

ok, so turn the other cheek may be an act of war --though distinguishes itself --if adopted, as a means to bring about -- let's say, kinder world, less rape genocide slavery --it would not, like other means of war, fall into a performative contradiction -- i.e. means of (turn other cheek) in service of adopted end (kinder world) would continue as permissible/even laudable form of action in new kind world, unlike kill people kinder world. never seen kinder world actually born --or, earth-wide --baby mothered by turn other cheek or love neighbor actually think only ever been aborted or slaughtered while innocent --turn other cheek, if born become ideal/elect to be slaughtered in service/worship of re-solidifying lymphatic, sends emissaries

--human beings may be lymphatic animal par excellence.
quantum says trees --orgasm in a female human --make a c where your thumb is the bottom part c crescent, and other 4 fingers top. now, tip of your index finger to your thumb, the gap in the c --with that distance, isolate a line of the lymphatic circulatory system in groin, one finger/end near/on clit --after each orgasm, zone of the clamp can move farther away from clit and achieve orgasm, so orgasm from thigh or foot-- also, if can clamp same way at same time as groin clamp another part of the body, it will decrease the number of orbit thrust rotations necessary to orgasm

--getting to quantum and emissary --when clamp off portion of the groin lymph, it will eventually burst to re-permit flow-- has to, it's suffocating. kink rupture catalyzed by orbit/thrust motions-- orbit thrust motions alone are long road orgasm. need kink, which when burst, shoots its load.

load shot felt in whole body at different points in lymphatic system, specifically where there is blockage. --so, in my head, when load shoots to/through my head from my groin when i orgasm, just slow turning my head back and forth, all the vessels of the lymph crack with a sparkle busting up sludge blocking the flow -- the contents of what i'm calling the female "load," are one aspect of the emissary, shot from the groin in orgasm, this load circulates like American Cross medics in war, where part of lymph in your body is normandy, it sticks around, for about an hour i can make my head crack/sparkle/bust up sludge --wondering if quantum, doing something in one location and its twin does identical in other place without knowledge --what if there are emissaries here, but we just don't have devices to detect them -- thinking further on circulatory form of lymph, can ask if gap bw the twins existed within a vein, wherein the gap is no gap, bc encased by vein, so connected-- what is capillary of quantum? could be like lymph. whatever the parameters /necessary conditions /ecosystem transmission bw quantum twins-- my hypothesis: quantum capillaries will resemble tree root systems and human lymph.

ok but there is another thing --aerobic exercise does this on more general level what i'm saying with orgasm--it's just dispersed more evenly on body --saunas work on same principle of choking, dehydrating squeezes the lymph veins, making entire lymph circulatory system contract, disrupting sludge by shrinking/squeezing --orgasm is by kinking and shooting --i think this is how ancient people understood body can heal itself --today, not enough kinking or squeeze --ironic thing about meditation, can work up the orbit ballerina hula hoop in stillness --like arousal at first sight. --ok, still another aside, the thing in this lymph and why i'm using word emissary --it's like different parts of the lymph can get corrupted with sludge, and thing is, i notice when i orgasm, that sludge which does not exist in my groin region after some regular orgasms, may return, and could be if come into contact with some kind of toxin, but and or-- this is the interesting part, even if all environments good, some sludge may move to groin-- my theory: sludge sends emissaries around the body in the same way as orgasms, only different natured emissaries. sludge may be bad name bc sludge is not lazy. it can move. it just has a castle. may have castles. the castles send out emissaries, and build new castles in hospitable lymph zones, or post exploration made to be so --so, it vital to keep pace with the sludge emissaries and orgasm daily, play rugby, work out insomnia with a walk.

the other reason i thought quantum is don't feel the sludge emissaries out there scouting and dropping their card, buying real estate, prospecting for the next circulation round. i think there is a lesson for politics here. there may never be no sludge, and the sludge has an army. it's ok, there is another army called kink and squeeze. shoot stars through the tree roots inside you, wash them away --they are like a calcification, something that happens to tree/plant roots without proper drainage. human need to drain too. our holes are anus, mouth and skin pores. eat 3 habanero peppers --the pores of your face will sweat out eyeballs! holes are drains. spit is as important for in as out. wet was before dick.

the clamp makes a lump --where bonds, lumps --a hard on, permanent and that's cancer.
